Supplier Code of conduct

The Whirlpool Corporation Supplier Code of Conduct ("Code") formalizes the key principles under which suppliers to Whirlpool Corporation and its global subsidiaries ("Whirlpool") are required to operate. In selecting suppliers, Whirlpool works hard to choose reputable business partners who are committed to ethical standards and business practices compatible with those of Whirlpool. This Code formalizes Whirlpool's practices and makes clear that, recognizing differences in cultures and legal requirements, we expect that wherever our suppliers are located, producing products for us, producing components that we use, or providing services to Whirlpool, they will follow the same standards. This Code applies to all suppliers, whether they are working with Whirlpool in your local country and/or region. The Whirlpool Business to Business Portals are points of entry for Whirlpool's Suppliers and companies wishing to become suppliers to Whirlpool, which enables you to connect to all other Services.
